Qwanoes Day Adventure

The following registration form is for the South Delta Baptist Church Youth 2021 Qwanoes Day Adventure. We will be meeting at 7AM at the Tsawwassen ferry terminal on September 3rd and returning around 10:15PM that same day. The cost of the trip will be $110 and reflects the cost of travel, food, and the camp we will be staying at for the day. Additional spending money is up to the individual for snacks and other food during travel times. A lunch will not be provided by the camp, so each student is required to pack their own lunch for this day trip.

This will be a day for everyone to get away and have some safe fun, get to know new people, and to gain a greater understanding of God. Camp Qwanoes is located on Vancouver Island and has many fun activities for our group to take part in. On this trip, students will be able to experience the beach, challenge course, all star games, tuck shop, and other land activities!

To register, fill out this form (all sections must be filled out in order for the form to be considered valid*), have a parent or guardian sign it, and include a $50.00 registration deposit to solidify your spot on the trip (cheques should be made out to South Delta Baptist Church). Return the completed registration form with deposit to the church office or Youth Coordinator James Cox. Space is limited, so the first 10 people to register and pay will secure a spot on the trip.

If you have any questions regarding the trip, contact James Cox at his work email (jcox@southdelta.org), phone the office (604-943-8244) on Wednesdays, or call his cell phone (604-306-3378).

We look forward to having you be a part of our 2021 Qwanoes Day Adventure!
